

VILLAGE OF LODA
IROQUOIS COUNTY, ILLINOIS

ORDINANCE 2022-05

AN ORDINANCE PERTAINING TO WATER DEPARTMENT SERVICE
AND RATES AND AMENDING CHAPTER 2 OF ARTICLE 4 OF THE
VILLAGE CODE OF THE VILLAGE OF LODA BY REPEALING
SECTION 4-2-2 AND MORE PARTICULARLY PRIOR ORDINANCE NO.: 2021-08

Be it ordained by the President and Village Board of the Village of Loda, as follows:

SECTION 1:

That prior Ordinance No. 2021-08 and Section 4-2-2 of Chapter 2 of Article 4 of the Village Code be and are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2:

An additional Section shall be added to the Village Code, to be enumerated as Section 4-2-3, to read in word and figures as follows:

That each and all water connections with the Public water service of the Village of Loda shall pay the infrastructure fee and basic service charge as are from time to time set forth in the Ordinances. Other Municipal Corporations of the State of Illinois, religious organizations, and other not-for-profit civic and charitable organizations shall be exempted from additional fees for water usage calculated by the gallon. However, such entities exempted from the usage charge shall remain liable for exceptional costs in providing service, such as meter, lines, installation of meters, and other costs related to water lines. The Village Board shall have the authority to make exception for such institutions and organizations at its discretion.

SECTION 3:

That all prior acts of Village officials in conformity with the above Section heretofore occurring are hereby expressly ratified and confirmed and that all Village officials are hereby released from any liability for any and all acts in conformity with the above-said policy.

SECTION 4:

All other ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed but otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 5:

This ordinance shall be effective with the next regular water billing following its adoption and approval.
